

JAMES L. PERKINS JR.

Biography

Jamie Perkins serves as the Chief of Maintenance for the State of West Virginia Aviation Division. He is also a licensed airplane and helicopter pilot.

Jamie was born in Charleston, WV and raised in Glasgow, WV. He graduated in 1997 from Fairmont State University with an Associate Degree in Aviation Maintenance Technology. In June of 1997 he received an Airframe and Powerplant License (A&P), and his Inspection Authorization License (IA) in August of 2004.

In 1997, his first job as an aircraft mechanic was with Mountain Air Cargo where he worked as a floating mechanic traveling from Charleston, WV to different airports around the United States working on a Federal Express feeder aircraft. In 2000, he began working for Reebaire Services in Charleston, WV where he performed overnight maintenance on airlines and routine preventive maintenance on privately owned aircraft. In 2008 he joined the Aviation Division as an aircraft mechanic and currently serves as Chief of Maintenance.

Jamie and his wife, Christie currently reside South Charleston, WV with their four children.

James L. Perkins, Chief of Maintenance
State of West Virginia Aviation

Department of Administration

James.L.Perkins@wv.gov

502 Eagle Mountain Road

Charleston, WV 25311

304.558.0403 (office)

304.558.5657 (fax)

www.aviation.wv.gov

The Mission of the State of West Virginia Aviation Division is to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of State Government by providing safe and professional aviation support. Reducing travel time and increasing productivity for the State executives is a primary goal of the Aviation.